

Cody Webb Wins 2018 Malaga SuperEnduro

The SuperEnduro battle in Malaga raged with crashes, all-action riding and another win for Cody Webb in the 2018 Championship.

With racing just about as exciting as SuperEnduro gets, things were “a little crazy out there” said eventual overall winner Cody Webb.

Webb took the overall win in Malaga but not before some close and at times aggressive racing in the tight Malaga arena: “I finished the final race with a hole in my radiator, my bars were completely bent and I had half a grip missing on the throttle side, but I still managed to do enough to get the overall win. It was a crazy night, that’s for sure, but I never gave up, and it feels great to have won.”

Race One

Billy Bolt initially led from Mani Lettenbichler with a trio of KTMs chasing down the lead.

After Bolt made a mistake Webb, Walker and Blazusiak took turns to swap the lead with some aggressive overtakes. It was a case of where to look next as the 11 lap race unfolded with everyone taking turns to crash and lead.

At the finish it was Walker who took the win to get some valuable points, with Webb and Blazusiak third.

Race Two

The second Prestige race of the night looked set to unfold with a bit less drama until Blazusiak got a bit whiskey and actually ended up under the stands – luckily with no serious injuries.

The race ran a little smoother after Taddy's departure by not much as again Cody and Walker traded places, this time with Colton Haaker very much in the mix.

Cody eventually ran out the winner from Haaker a close-run second. A mistake late on from Walker allowed Bolt through to take third.

Race Three

Taddy made amends in race three with a win after a monster crash at turn one involving half the field. When the dust had settled it was Webb and Haaker were the ones left tangled and dead last. Walker had fared little better.

Blazusiak benefitted and ran out the race winner but not without some pressure from the Husky boys Bolt and Alfredo Gomez. Gomez eventually worked his way forwards, largely by keeping things clean and not crashing, to take a popular second in front of the Spanish crowd. Billy Bolt was third.

Championship standings

The SuperEnduro World Championship is definitely swinging towards Cody Webb at the half way stage.

Webb has 155 points from Blazusiak on 131 points in second.

Billy Bolt is closing in after another podium overall place in his rookie year – he now has 124 points. Colton Haaker sits on 114 points with Jonny Walker and Alfredo Gomez tied on 105.

Juniors

Kevin Gallas just keeps on keeping in the 2018 Junior class. Being the fast guy out there helps but the German is winning by doing the right things at the right time.

Gallas hit the front from the start of race one and controlled the things. He took his time in race two, with the reverse start grid, to work his way forward.

Then again in race three Kevin controlled things to take the het win and hte overall. Gallas continues lead of the series with a healthy 156 points.

Emil Juszczyk came home second overall in Malaga with British rider Will Hoare a well-earned third.
